

Winewise 2004 LJ

2003 Scorpo Pinot Gris It's packed with varietal dried pear, malt and nuts aromas and flavours. The palate has a very appealing silky texture, and finishes with just the right acid balance. One of Australia's best pinot gris to date. ($26.00)
Highly Recommended LJ

· Paris Hilton... now there's a skinny chick. I like a bit of plumpious - not fat, but deliciously squeezable. So I did enjoy the Scorpo 2003 Pinot Gris, very Xena, Warrior Princess. I could do all the weight, length, balance stuff or go down the fruit & vegie truck collision path, but it would sound very trite for such a beauty. I'll take your word Paul (Scorpo) that it "reflects the soil" but for my money, that soil could well have been in Alsace. Cracking wine, one of the best I have tasted in some time and at $28, it puts many of those skinny Pinot Gris to shame.
